From the BOSTON GAZETTE, July 15.

THE Miniſterial Writers, and all the Great and Little Tools on this and the other Side the Water, are obliged to confeſs, that the Subjects of America are upon an equal Footing, with Regard to LIBERTY and RIGHT, with thoſe in Britain: They dare not deny this, for they know they would be confronted by Charters, by Acts of Parliament, and by Common Senſe.——What is the Reaſon then that theſe RIGHTS and LIBERTIES, when they have been Threatened and Attacked, are not as boldly Aſſerted by every Government in America as by Virginia? Is it not becauſe in ſome of them Power is an Overbalance for Liberty? Whenever this happens to be the Caſe, the People with a very little Sagacity may ſee it; nay ſometimes it is ſo Glaring that they muſt ſhut their Eyes not to ſee.—If then, inſtead of making Choice of ſuch Men to Repreſent them, at ſo critical a Time, as will Guard and Defend their Liberties, the People, or a Majority of them, will be ſo infatuated as to ſend ſuch as will ſacrifice them to the inſatiable Demands of exorbitant Power, Who have they to blame? What may they reaſonably expect but the unavailing Pity of their Friends, and the haughty Contempt of their Maſters? Are not the People of America, BRITISH Subjects? Are they not ENGLISHMEN? This is the repeated palliating Language of thoſe Writers themſelves, who are employing all their Power to Enſlave us. Thro' Favour their Power is not yet formidable: Very little is to be feared from the Strength they have hitherto diſcovered: Neither their Reaſoning nor Eloquence will endanger the Safety of America.——Yes, ye baſe Hirelings,——we are Britiſh Subjects,——we are Engliſhmen.——Does your Maſter tell you to tantalize us? Does he think we are to be flatter'd with the mere Name of Engliſhmen?—The Sound of LIBERTY, charming as it is, will not lull us to Sleep.—The Britiſh Americans are at this Time, more than ever, attentive to their Rights and Privileges, and they will not be Content with the Shadow without the Subſtance.

Is it not the diſtinguiſhing Character of an Engliſhman, that he is Free? Is he not Born with an inherent Right of aſſiſting in the making of thoſe Laws by which he is to be Taxed and Governed, and of Judging of them when they are made?—Is not this the very Spirit of the Britiſh Conſtitution? Are not theſe the eſſential Rights of a Briton? It is this that an Engliſhman prides himſelf in, and not the bare Name: If, for the Sake of other imagin'd ſuperior Advantages, any of the People of Britain have Sold their Birth-Right, or if thro' Corruption it has been wreſted or wheedled from them, pray what is that to America? You own us to be Britiſh Subjects—We have never forfeited the Character or Privileges of ſuch, nor can we—We neither have, nor can we relinquiſh them—and we hope in GOD, thro' the Watchfulneſs of an united Continent, they never will, by the rude Hand of an arbitrary Miniſter, be wreſted from us.

If we are Britiſh Subjects, are we Govern'd as ſuch? Are not Laws made to Tax us without our Conſent? Were the Colonies Repreſented in the Parliament of Great-Britain when the Stamp-Act was made? To ſooth us a little, we are told truly, that we are Repreſented there: Aſk them how? They tell us we are VIRTUALLY Repreſented: But what do they mean by virtually? Is not this too vague and uncertain a Word to be applied to a Subject of ſo great Importance? A Word for which almoſt every Man that uſes it in almoſt every Caſe, has a Meaning of his own in Reſerve. Are we Repreſented in the Britiſh Parliament, agreeable to the true Spirit of the Britiſh Conſtitution? Are we in any Senſe at all Repreſented there, or can we be? Is it poſſible for any Man in England to have ſuch a Knowledge of our internal Circumſtances, ever varying in an infant State, as to be capable of Repreſenting us? If not, 'tis plain we cannot be Repreſented there: And if ſo, another Conſequence of the utmoſt Importance to us is as plain——

If we are Engliſhmen, upon what Footing is our Property? How are our new Laws to be Adjudged and Executed? Is not our Property, after being ſeized by a numerous Swarm of Horſe-Leaches, who never ceaſe crying, GIVE! GIVE! to be thrown into a Prerogative Court? A Court of Admiralty? And there to be adjudged, forfeited, and condemned, without a Jury? I aſk the Queſtion—I am told ſo—I want to be ſatisfied—It behoves every Man to enquire—For he that can remain a Moment in Doubt, in a Matter of ſo intereſting Importance, forfeits the very Name of an ENGLISHMAN.

I expect that the little Quacks in Politicks, and their Maſters, will affect to be mightily diſturbed at theſe harmleſs Queſtions, and charge me as they have done the Virginia Burgeſſes and the New-York Writers, with Treaſon.——This is an Artifice much in Vogue among us, made uſe of to frighten us out of our Senſes and Liberties.——But we would have you to know, we Honour our Sovereign, and Revere a Britiſh Parliament.——What is Treaſon, if to impeach the Rectitude of our Sovereign and his Parliament is not? This you have in Effect done, when you have endeavoured to make the People believe that the King will not Hearken to the Diſtreſſes of his loyal Subjects—that the Parliament will not Redreſs their Grievances——For GOD's Sake, ceaſe to Defame Majeſty and Government any longer, leſt you alienate the Affections of a Continent of irreproachable Subjects, and bring down Guilt and Vengeance on your own Heads.

LONDON, May 18.

YESTERDAY Morning the Weavers aſſembled again, by Beat of Drum, in Spitalfields, to the Number, as ſuppoſed, of upwards of Fifty Thouſand, from whence they proceeded, in three large Bodies, to Weſtminſter. One Corps took the Route of Grace-Church Street, and London-Bridge, from whence they paſſed over St. George's-Fields. Another Corps marched along Ludgate-Hill, and the Strand; while the Third proceeded by Way of Holbourn and Covent-Garden. When united again in Weſtminſter, the Crowd was ſo great, that the Members could ſcarce get to their reſpective Houſes. All Old-Palace-Yard, New-Palace-Yard, and the Streets adjoining, quite as far up as Weſtminſter-Bridge, were filled with theſe poor Petitioners, beſides Multitudes of others that were in the Park. Before them, in their March, Flags of various Colours were borne by the Women; particularly a French Silk Handkerchief, with a golden Border on it, and a Croſs of Gold in the Middle; a large Piece of French ſpotted Silk, ſaid to have been procured from a Shop of a Mercht in Town, and three or four Pieces of French Lace, &c. &c. The Men wore red Cockades and Shreds of Silk in their Hats. In Weſtminſter they ſtopped the Carriages of the Members, as they went to the Houſe, praying them to take Pity on the poor Weavers, but behaved in all other Reſpects with the greateſt good Order. To prevent any Tumult however, the Firſt Troop of Horſe-Guards, with a Party of Horſe-Grenadiers, and three Companies of the Foot-Guards, all under Arms, and headed by their proper Officers, were ordered from the Parade to Old-Palace-Yard, where they were drawn up in two Lines, before Weſtminſter-Hall, to clear the Paſſage for the Members to get to the Houſe. About Two o'Clock a Meſſage was delivered them from the Lords, ſignifying that they could not proceed to the Conſideration of their Grievances, 'till next Seſſion, when every poſſible Step ſhould be taken for their Advantage. This not ſatisfying them, they continued ſtill aſſembled till near Four o'Clock, when being informed by their Heads, that Hand-Bills would be diſtributed this Day, which would allay all their Fears, and every other neceſſary Step be taken for their Advantage, they were recommended to ſeparate peaceably, and accordingly began their March home again, ſo that by Five the Streets round Weſtminſter-Hall were pretty well cleared of them. Sir John Fielding, and his Brother-Juſtices, had attended at the New Guild-Hall all the Time; at which Place there was alſo a Conference between the Chiefmen of the Weavers, to the Number of about 400, their Maſters, and the Mercers, when it was agreed by the latter immediately to recal all their Contracts for foreign Goods, and to ſet the Journeymen inſtantly to work. But though this had ſo good an Effect, that it contributed, perhaps, more than any Thing elſe to diſperſe them; yet in their Return they ſaid they ſhould not depend entirely upon Promiſes, and talked of getting the Watermen to join them, &c. A Body of them even went to Bloomſbury-Square, where they pulled down the Stone-Poſts, and Part of the Wall, before the Duke of Bedford's Houſe, with the Rails in the Road to Fig-Lane, beſides plunging up the Ground in the Middle of the Square, and doing other Damage. Theſe Outrages being apprehended there, a Party of the Horſe-Guards had been added to the Foot, which had been placed there the Night before, but the Mob were ſo unruly, they tore up the very Pavement to ſupply them with Stones to pelt the Guards, in Conſequence of which much Miſchief was done, many of the Soldiery were hurt and wounded, and ſeveral of the People trampled down by the Horſes. Theſe Outrages continued a great Part of the Night.

Another Body went to Mr. Carr's, a Silk Mercht, on Ludgate-Hill, where they demoliſhed the Windows, broke the Lamps on the Door, and did other Miſchief. In Conſequence of this, between Seven and Eight o'Clock, the Lord-Mayor, attended by the Sheriffs, Recorder, City-Marſhal, and Sword-Bearer, with a Number of Peace-Officers, appeared in the Spot, but his Lordſhip was obliged to leave his Coach in St. Paul's Church Yard, from whence he proceeded on Foot to Mr. Carr's, where the Recorder told the Populace that unleſs they diſperſed, the Riot Act ſhould be read. His Lordſhip then repaired to the Globe-Tavern in Fleet-Street, and attended there with his Brethren for ſome Time, after which he returned about Ten o'Clock, in a Chair to the Manſion-Houſe, his Coach being ſtill unable to paſs for the Mob.

About Nine in the Evening a ſtrong Party of Horſe, with another of Foot, were drawn up before Mr. Carr's Houſe, but happily the Night paſſed without any further Diſorder.

A Court of Aldermen had previouſly met Wednesday Morning, to conſider on proper Methods for preventing the ill Conſequences, that might riſe from ſo large a Body of People daily aſſembling; a Party of the Guards from the Tower, did Duty all Thurſday Night in Moorfields; another Party had been ſent for the ſame Night to Spitalfields, on Account of the Mob breaking the Windows there of ſome Maſter Weavers, who were reported to have had French Silks in their Houſes, particularly of one in Princeſs-Street, whoſe Windows were entirely demoliſhed from the Top to the Bottom.

At Six this Morning, a ſtrong Party of the Guards, attended by a great Number of Conſtables, Headboroughs, &c. marched from Hicks's Hall to Moorfields, to be in Readineſs againſt any further Riots, it having been rumoured that the Sailors, Hatters, and others, were to have joined them. But we have the Satisfaction of hearing, that all is as yet quiet, though they talk of going on again on Tueſday next, in a larger Body, when it is not doubted, but that Meaſures will be taken for their Relief.

Their principal Orator on moſt of theſe Occaſions was one Jones, a Welchman. This Perſon received the Meſſage on Thurſday laſt, at St. James's from the Earl of Northumberland, after which he drew his Brethren off to the Green-Park, and like another Kat, Aguillon his Majeſty's Pleaſure from a Tree. Yeſterday alſo he made a long Harangue to them in Old-Palace-Yard, perſuading them to diſperſe, and ſeems to conduct himſelf with a good Deal of Modeſty and Decorum.

On Thurſday laſt, when the Weavers went down to the Houſe of Lords, a noble Perſonage, on the Reception of a Letter given him in his Chariot, drove with the greateſt Precipitation, under the Gate at the Horſe-Guards, into St. James's Park, in order to avoid the Fury of the Populace, otherwiſe, it is imagined, the Conſequence might have been fatal.

May 21. Sunday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland was at Court, and had near an Hour's private Audience of his Majeſty, from whence he proceeded to Hayes, the Seat of the Right Hon. William Pitt, and on his Return to Windſor waited upon his Majeſty at Richmond.

It is now certain that many Changes in the Miniſtry will very ſoon take Place, but nothing ſeems as yet fixed. Among others the following are talked of.

Duke of Newcaſtle, Lord Preſident of the Council.
Earl of Northumberland, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury.
Charles Townſhend, Eſq; Chancellor of the Exchequer.
General Conway, Secretary at War.
George Onſlow, Eſq; one of the Lords of the Admiralty.
Mr. Pitt and Mr. Oſwald, Secretaries of State.
Lord Holland to be created an Earl.

But notwithſtanding the above, it is confidently aſſerted, that Mr. Pitt has abſolutely declined having any Share in the Adminiſtration.

We are aſſured that His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland has not been at Windſor for theſe ten Days paſt, and during that Period, has ſcarce ſlept four Hours of a Night; His Highneſs having been indefatigable in endeavouring to ſettle the great and important Affair of the Miniſtry; a Circumſtance which muſt endear him to all true Engliſhmen.

WESTMINSTER, May 23.

THIS Day his Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Septimus Robinſon, Knt. Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from his Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal Aſſent to the ſeveral Bills which were ready.

After which his Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Diſpatch which you have given with ſo much Zeal and Wiſdom to the public Buſineſs, enables me now to put a Period to this Seſſion of Parliament.

No Alteration in the State of foreign Affairs has happened ſince your Meeting, to diſturb the general Peace; and it is with Pleaſure that I inform you, that the preſent Diſpoſitions of the ſeveral Powers of Europe promiſe the Continuance of this Bleſſing.

I have ſeen, with the moſt perfect Approbation, that you have employed this Seaſon of Tranquility, in promoting thoſe Objects which I had recommended to your Attention, in framing ſuch Regulations as may beſt indeare the juſt Authority of the Legiſlature, and, at the ſame Time, ſecure and extend the Commerce, and unite the Intereſts of every Part of my Dominions.

Gentlemen

The Chearfulness and Promptitude which you have shewn in providing for the necessary Expences of the present Year, deserve my particular Acknowledgments. The several Bills which you have formed for the Improvement and Augmentation of the Revenue in its several Branches, and the ready Care which you have taken to discharge a Part of the national Debt, are the most effectual Methods to establish the public Credit upon the surest Foundations, and to alleviate, by Degrees, the Burthens of my People.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Provisions which have been made for the Administration of the Government, in Case the Crown should descend to any of my Children under the Age of Eighteen Years, whilst they add Strength and Security to our present Establishment, give me the kindest and most convincing Proof of your Confidence: The Sense which I have of the important Trust reposed in me, and my Desire to repay this Mark of your Affection, by discharging my Part agreeably to your Intentions, in the Manner most beneficial to my People, have concurred to make me execute, without Delay, the Powers with which you have entrusted me. This is already done; and you may be assured, that as far as it depends upon me, those salutary Provisions shall never be ineffectual. It is my ardent Wish, and it shall be my constant Endeavour, on this, and every other Occasion, to perpetuate the Happiness of my Subjects, and to transmit to Posterity the Blessings of our invaluable Constitution."

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majesty's Command, prorogued the Parliament to Thursday, the 11th of July next.

LONDON, May 28.

This Day at Noon his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland was at St. James's for upwards of an Hour, in Conference with his Majesty.

It is now confidently asserted, that neither Mr. Pitt or Lord Temple are to assume any Share in the public Administration of Affairs.

A Report now prevails, that no Changes will be made for the present, in any of the Departments of Secretaries of State.

Lord Bute, it is said, has declined accepting any Office at Court.

The Right Hon. Lord Lyttleton is now confidently talked of, to succeed to the Office of Chancellor of the Exchequer.

May 30. Notwithstanding the frequent Reports to the contrary, it is still thought many Things are to be settled previous to Mr. Pitt's engaging in any of the high Departments of State.

The Right Hon. Lord Sandwich, we are now assured, is to continue at the Head of the Admiralty Board.

BOSTON, July 22.

By Capt. Philips, who arrived here last Friday, in 15 Days from Newfoundland, we learn, that there are 4 English Men of War, and 2 French, on that Station, for the Protection of Trade; and that one of the Tenders belonging to the former, going into St. Peters, had taken 3 English Vessels, and 8 or 9 French Shallops trading there, under the Mouth of the Cannon of one of the French Men of War, lying at Anchor there, which they ordered out of the Harbour immediately, on Pain of being made a lawful Prize, agreeable to the Treaty stipulated.—We also learn, that the greater Part of the French Bills drawn there, had come back protested.

Baltimore County, July 31, 1765.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Patapsco Neck, about 3 Weeks ago, a Mulatto Slave, named Joseu, about 35 Years old, 5 Feet 6 or 7 Inches high, has a down Look, and is slow of Speech, but an artful enterprizing Genius: He had no other Cloaths on, when he went, than a Country Linen Shirt, and Trowsers; but will soon procure others. It is probable he is gone down or over the Bay, as one of the Neighbour's Canoes was taken away the Night he went off.

Whoever apprehends the said Slave, and secures him in any Jail, so that his Master gets him again, shall have Forty Shillings if in the County, and Three Pounds if out; and Four Pounds if out of the Province: If brought home, Three Pounds if in the County, Four Pounds if out, and Five Pounds if out of the Province, and all reasonable Charges borne, paid by LUKE TROTTEN.

Mr. Thomas Jones.

BALTIMORE-TOWN, July 31, 1765.

RAN away, last Night, from the Northampton Iron-Works, in Baltimore County, Maryland, Two Convict Servant Men, viz.

Godfrey Stone, a Dutchman, a lusty Fellow, about 6 Feet high, wears his own short brown Hair, about 35 Years of Age: Had on, when he went away, an Osnabrig Shirt, brown Roll Trowsers, half-worn Shoes, and an old Felt Hat.

Thomas Watson, an Englishman, a slim Fellow, about 25 Years of Age, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, has large black Eyes: Had on, when he went away, an Osnabrig Shirt, brown Roll Trowsers, half-worn Shoes, a Bearskin Jacket with Metal Buttons, and a new Felt Hat.

Whoever takes up the said Servants, and delivers them at the said Iron-Works, shall have, if taken above Ten Miles from home, Forty Shillings Reward for each: If taken out of the County, and brought home, Four Pounds for each; and if taken out of the Province, and brought home, Five Pounds for each, paid by CHARLES RIDGELY, Iear. & Comp.

RAN away from the above Works, on the 14th of July Inst. a Country-born Negro Man, named DICK, purchased of Mr. John Brooks, of Dorchester County, in September last, and 'tis probable will endeavour to get there again. He is a very likely lusty Fellow, about 25 Years of Age; has a full Beard, and looks very pleasant, about 6 Feet high, well made, and very active: Had on, when he went away, a Felt Hat, an Osnabrig Shirt, Crocus Trowsers, coarse Shoes, with Nails in the Heels. It is supposed he may have a Gun with him, a small Cocking-Piece, the Breech, and some other Part of the Stock, Rat-eaten, such a one having been taken out of an Out-House at the Furnace since he ran away. It is likely he may have other Cloaths besides those mentioned.

Whoever takes up the said Negro, and delivers him to Col. Charles Ridgely, at the said Furnace, or to the Subscriber in Baltimore-Town, shall have, if taken in the Province, Three Pounds, and if out of it, Five Pounds, Pennsylvania Currency, Reward, paid by (2w) JOHN RIDGELY.

N. B. It is probable the above Convicts may have gone with the Negro, as he has been seen about the Furnace sometime since he ran away.

TRUEMAN SKINNER, Sheriff.

Baltimore-Town, July 29, 1765.

AS the SMALL-POX is more liable to be conveyed about in the Winter, than any other Season of the Year, and as there is a Probability of it's Breaking out and Spreading in different Parts of the Province in the Winter, the Subscriber gives this Notice, That he is to INOCULATE in Prince-George's in September, and shall be glad to serve any Gentlemen that are pleased to favour him with their Custom in that Way. He will not go Abroad to Inoculate after this Fall and next Spring. Those who choose to employ him, are desired to give timely Notice.

Ramsby-Hall, July 29, 1765.

RAN away from the Subscriber, on Saturday last, a Servant Man, named JOSEPH DENT, about 23 Years of Age; had on, when he went away, a brown Thickset or Fustian Coat and Breeches, a short blue Jacket, and a red Cloth Waistcoat over it; a brown Wig, Yarn Stockings, and common Shoes; and probably has taken more Clothes with him.

He is about 5 Feet 9 Inches high, well made, and active, is full faced, rather of a pale Complexion, marked with the Small-Pox, and hesitates a little in speaking, says he was born in France, but went to England young. He speaks French well, and English so well, that no Person would take him for a Foreigner. I purchased him for a Gardener, of which Business he is very ignorant, though he speaks well on the Subject, as he does on many others, being artful, and very smart. He pretends also to understand the Shoemaker's Trade, and some Branches of Husbandry. He has been in the Army a great Part of his Life, and a considerable Time in the French Service.

A few Days before he eloped, he applied to one M'Donald, a Man who had a Pass from George Stewart, Esq; of Annapolis, desiring a Copy, so that it is probable he has forged a Pass either in Dr. Stewart's, or my Name, as he writes a pretty good Hand.

Whoever apprehends the said Servant, and will deliver him here, shall receive Ten Pounds Reward.
